
MY PROFILE

Travis Grogan

The Grogan family name is well known in the local area and has a strong connection with the real estate industry. Coming from a family of real estate agents, Travis has a well rounded understanding of the local market and real estate has always been a part of his life.

With over 6 years of selling homes in some of the most difficult and changing market conditions ever seen in WA, Travis has developed a unique style of selling homes which provides his clients with a powerful advantage in the ever-competitive real estate market.

Blessed with a strong drive to succeed, an analytical mind set and excellent communication skills, he has excelled in the real estate industry and his ongoing repeat business is testament to this.

Travis has negotiated a wide range of real estate sales from hundreds of residential homes and unit developments through to large rural properties and development sites.

With a passionate approach to everything he does, you can be certain that Travis will give you nothing other than hard work from start to finish.

Testimonials

We gave Travis the listing of our house after trying 4 other agencies over a year. His method was different to anything we'd been told and we were sceptical at first but desperate to try something new and WOW! 2 inspections and 2 offers. If only we'd come to you a year ago we'd have saved so much money.

Dear Travis, you've done it again! Thank you for such a great result selling our home, after selling our Maddington house in 2 weeks we didn't think it could get better than that. . . then you sold this in 8 days! Great to deal with and so enthusiastic, we really can't thank you enough.

Tony & Maria Moxham

Travis sold our house in Byford in the first week for more than we were asking! We highly recommend him.
