
MY PROFILE

Stuart Ostle

Born in the historic whaling town of Albany, Stuart moved into the Serpentine-Jarrahdale district with his family when he was six years old. In his subsequent years he acquired a wealth of local knowledge and a strong sense of community awareness. A Curtin University graduate, a keen hobby aqua culturist, and a husband and doting father to three children, Stuart has a passion for all things outdoors and the remarkable ability to memorise information about all facets of life.

Stuart has been engaged in the real estate industry since 2001, with the majority of this time spent within the highly successful sales department of O'Neil Real Estate. In addition to his current role of sales consultant, he has also been involved with Commercial Leasing and Sales, equipping him with knowledge of the many different aspects of the real estate industry.

Stuart excels with strong client relations and an enviable reputation of reliable and accountable professionalism. Stuart is driven to exceed your expectations, give excellent customer service, and to provide a stress free selling experience that you can enjoy from start to finish.

Testimonials

Thank you for the photos Stuart, they mean a lot to us and we will keep them as memories forever. We would like you to know that we are so impressed with your service! Not just because you got us an offer so quickly, but just the way you conduct yourself in such a professional manner whilst making us feel comfortable.

Michelle & Peter Nield

Stuart is dedicated, trustworthy, and reliable. Stuart worked with us, giving us realistic advice and expectations. He kept us up to date with market trends and movements that could have affected the sale of our home. Stuart supported us in every part of the sale. We would never use any one else when it comes to real estate, and have no hesitations in recommending Stuart Ostle.

Mark & Katy-Jane

During the recent purchase of my property in Seville Grove, Stuart was always up to date with all information and always responded to my correspondence in a more than timely manner. Not being a straightforward process, Stuart arranged for the necessary trade works and negotiated with the relevant parties to ensure a smooth and on time settlement could take place, far exceeding my expectations.
